

“I Believe in You” by Don Williams (Capo 3rd)

[Intro] E E E E

[Verse 1]

E E

I don't believe in superstars, organic food and foreign cars

E E

I don't believe the price of gold, the certainty of growing old

B B

That right is right and left is wrong, that north and south can't get along

E E

That east is east and west is west, and being first is always best

[Chorus]

A A E E

But I believe in love... I believe in babies...

B B E E

I believe in Mom and Dad, and I believe in you.

[Verse]

E E

Well I don't believe that heaven waits for only those who congregate

E E

I like to think of God as love, he's down below, he's up above

B B

He's watching people everywhere; he knows who does and doesn't care

E E

And I'm an ordinary man, sometimes I wonder who I am

[Chorus]

A A A E E
But I believe in love... I believe in music...

B B E E
I believe in magic... and I believe in you.

[Bridge]

A A
I know with all my certainty what's going on with you and me

E E B B E E
Is a good thing... It's true... I believe in you

[Verse]

E E
I don't believe virginity is as common as it used to be

E E
In working days and sleeping nights, that black is black and white is white

B B
That Superman and Robin Hood are still alive in Hollywood

E E
That gasoline's in short supply, the rising cost of getting by

[Chorus]

A A A E E
But I believe in love... I believe in old folks...

B B E E
I believe in children... I believe in you.

A A E E
I believe in love... I believe in babies...

B B E E
I believe in Mom and Dad, and I believe in you.

[Outro] Repeat Chorus with hums...fade out
