

Daddy Doesn't Pray Anymore by Chris Stapleton (Capo 3rd)

[Intro] G D G-----G

[Chorus]

G D G-----G

Daddy doesn't pray anymore

G C D-----D

I guess he's finished talkin' to the Lord

C D G C

He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor

G D G-----G

'n Daddy doesn't pray anymore

[Verse 1]

G D G-----G

I remember even when the times where bad

G C D-----D

He'd thank Jesus for everything he had

C D G C

A good wife and 3 children, the food upon our plates

G D G-----G

Yeah everything was right when he said grace

[Chorus 1]

G D G-----G

Daddy doesn't pray anymore

G C D-----D

I guess he's finished talkin' to the Lord

C D G C

He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor

G D G-----G

'n Daddy doesn't pray anymore

[Verse 2]

There was a time when we didn't get along
'Cause I thought I was right and he was wrong
Still when I'd lay down at night, I'd hear him get down on his knees
And say a little prayer for me

[Back to Chorus 1]

[Solo] G D G ---- G G C D ---- D C D G ---- C G D G ---- G

[Verse 3]

Today I followed daddy down to church
Listened to the preacher read God's words
And we sang his favorite hymn but daddy didn't make a sound
And this afternoon we'll lay him in the ground

[Chorus 2]

Daddy doesn't pray anymore
I guess he's finally walking with the Lord
He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor
'n Daddy doesn't pray anymore