

Everybody Talks to God by Aaron Lewis (Capo 6th)

INTRO G C G C

VERSE

G C
He was sayin' grace, over a, Tuesday blue-plate special
G D
When the man in the next booth said, "Don't you watch TV?"
Em C
Don't you know that God's a myth, I hate to see you waste your breath
G D
Cause there ain't no use talkin'... to a ghost that don't exist
Em C
The prayin' man said "Amen" and looked up from his plate
G D
And said, "You may not talk to God right now, but there's gonna come a day"

CHORUS

C C
Cause whether you're a farmer in the field... Prayin' for the rain
G G
Or you curse Him at the grave site... Cause he called a loved one's name
C C
You can thank Him, you can blame Him... Either way, you're gonna face Him
G D C Am7 D G
Whether you believe in Him or not... Cause in the end, everybody talks to God

BREAK C G C

VERSE

G C
The man in the booth went quiet... cause he, didn't have a comeback
G D
So he, shrugged it off and paid his tab, then he shuffled out the door
Em C
And the prayin' man he prayed, for the man who drove away
G D
Hopin' he would see the light, before it got too late
Em C
But how was he to know, he touched a non-believer's soul
G D
Who got that conversation... two red lights down the road

CHORUS

C C
Cause whether you're a farmer in the field... Prayin' for the rain
G G
Or you curse Him at the grave site... Cause he called a loved one's name
C C
You can thank Him, you can blame Him... Either way, you're gonna face Him
G D C A_{m7} D G
Whether you believe in Him or not... Cause in the end, everybody talks to God
A_{m7} D G
Oh yea... Everybody talks to God...

OUTRO CHORUS

C C
You can thank Him, you can blame Him... Either way, you're gonna face Him
G D C A_{m7} D G
Whether you believe in Him or not... Cause in the end, everybody talks to God
A_{m7} D G A_{m7} D G
Oh yea... Everybody talks to God... Don't you know... We all talk to God...
A_{m7} D G----(let fade)
That's right... Everybody talks to God
