

“Someone” by Aaron Lewis (2 steps down)

[Verse 1]

Em C G D
I'm damaged goods, I'm complicated.
Em C D D
I sure do know how to tell a lie.
Em C G
Some people say, I ain't worth savin'.
D Em C G D
Sometimes I think they're right.

[Verse 2]

Em C G D
It ain't no secret, I can say it.
Em C D D
I get it wrong most of the time.
Em C G
But looking at you right now, baby.
D Em C G D
You're the one thing I got right.

[Chorus]

G G D
'Cause someone else would've walked away
Em C D
Someone else would've never stayed
C D
Sure as hell, someone else would've left me, a long, long time ago, oh-oh...
G G D
Someone else would've called my bluff
Em C D
Saying, “I ain't even worth their love”
C D
No one else could've loved me like you do
G D Em C D D
Thank God, my someone's you... {Mmmm... 2nd chorus only}

[Verse 3]

Em C G D
I wasn't perfect, you were patient.
Em C D D
I didn't know what you were waiting for.
Em C G
I swear I must've found an angel.
D Em C G D
Sent from Heaven's d-o-o-r.

[Back to Chorus]

[Verse 4]

Em C G D
I'm damaged goods, I'm complicated.
Em C D D
I sure do know how to tell a lie.

[Outro Chorus]

G G D
Someone else would've walked away
Em C D
Someone else would've never stayed
C D
Sure as hell, someone else would've left me, a long, long time ago, oh-oh...
G G D
Someone else would've called my bluff
Em C D
Saying, "I ain't even worth their love"
C D
No one else could've loved me like you do
G D Em C
Thank God, my someone's you...
G D Em C G (and let fade)
Thank God, my someone's you... hmmmmm
