

“And The Birds Sing” by Tyrone Wells (Capo 2nd)

[Verse 1]

G C G
The sunshine came out today... and it's shining all over the world.

[G] C G C
Shining all over the world. The sunshine came out today.

[C] G C
And it's shining all over the world, on every man, woman, boy & girl.

[Chorus]

G C
And it sure feels fine... when the sunshine shines.

G C G
It, warms your skin... and your soul within... and the birds sing, do do do

[G] Am C G
do do do do, do do do do do do do do, do do do do do do do do doo

[Verse 2]

G C G
The poor man and the millionaire... both share the oak tree's shade,

[G] C
not stressin' over money made.

G C G
The preacher and the atheist... both jumping in the ocean waves,

[G] C
today they both feel saved.

[Chorus]

G C
And it sure feels fine when the sunshine shines.

G C G
It, warms your skin and your soul within... and the birds sing, do do do

[G] Am C G
do do do do, do do do do do do do do, do do do do do do do do doo {repeat 1x}

[Bridge]

[G] Am
Say what you gonna do when the clouds come.

C G*
You're gonna hold your head high.

G Am
Said what you gonna do when the storms come.

C G C
Keep your eyes to the sky, and I'll tell you why. Cause one day...

[Verse 3]

G C G
The sunshine will shine again... Shine all over the world.

[G] C G C
Shine all over the world... One day... The sunshine will shine again.

[C] G C
Shine all over the world, on every man, woman, boy & girl.

[Chorus]

G C
And it sure feels fine when the sunshine shines.

G C G
It, warms your skin and your soul within... and the birds sing, do do do

[G] Am C G
do do do do, do do do do do do do, do do do do do do do do doo {repeat 3x's}

[Outro]

[G] G {let fade}
...and the birds sing.
