

Lonely Nights by Mike Adams (Capo 2nd)

Intro:

G C G*

Verse 1:

In the quiet night... I'm sittin' here all alone.

With only my memories... and a heart that's turned to stone.

Sometimes my tears... fall-down like the pouring rain...

and it hurts so deep inside, that my soul feels the pain.

Chorus:

These lonely nights... they never... seem to end.

Ever since you've been gone... my cold hard heart... won't seem to mend.

Verse 2:

I remember your smile, and how your laughter was so sweet.

And how we use to... hold hands walking down the street.

But it's been a while, and my memory's startin' to fade...

and this lonely silence, keeps getting' louder, every day.

Chorus:

These lonely nights... they never... seem to end.

Ever since you've been gone... my cold hard heart... won't seem to mend.

Verse 3:

What I would give, for just one more day with you.
To hold your hand, just like I use to do.
I'd tell you jokes, just to hear your sweet laugh.
and I'd kiss your lips, while the twenty-four hours pass.

Bridge:

Lord one more day, is all I'm asking for...
Just twenty-four hours, with the woman I adore.
These lonely nights, they're driving me insane.
and it hurts so deep inside... that even my soul feels the pain.

Outro Chorus:

These lonely nights... they never... seem to end.
Ever since she's been gone... my cold hard heart... won't seem to mend.

No.....

Ever since she's been gone... my cold hard heart... won't seem to mend.
