

“Rush On” by Mike Adams (Capo 2nd)

[Intro] Em----- Em----- Em----- Em-----

[Verse 1]

Em Em
The clock keeps ticking, it don't slow down,

Em Em
and there's no way, to turn it around.

Em Em
Months turn to years, sand slips through.

Em Em
Time keeps on running, what am I to do?

[Chorus]

A7* Em*
I Rush on... cause my time's almost gone.

A7* Em*
Rush on, rush on... yeah, my time's almost gone.

[Verse 2]

Em Em
The mirror's reflection, shows lines on my face.

Em Em
My memory's fading, can't keep the pace.

Em Em
Moment's fleeting, like a whisper in the wind.

Em Em
Time keeps on tuggin'... I feel it deep within.

[Chorus]

A7* Em*
I Rush on... cause my time's almost gone.

A7* Em*
Rush on, rush on... yeah, my time's almost gone.

[Bridge]

A Em
Lifetime of seconds, slippin' like rain.

A Em
Feel the weight of every, heartache and pain.

A Em
Chasing shadows while reaching for the sun.

A A Em
No matter what you do, time's on the run... .. on the run.

[Break] [Em]----- Em----- Em----- Em-----

[Verse 3]

Em Em
The sun is settin'; the shadows growin' long.

Em Em
Days pass by, like an old familiar song.

Em Em
Every ticking second, I feel them moving fast.

Em Em
Grabbin' all the moments, that I-I-I-I wish could last.

[Chorus]

A7* Em
I Rush on... cause my time's almost gone.

A7* Em
Rush on, rush on... yeah, my time's almost gone.

[Outro]

Em Em
So I'll play the blues and sing my songs.

Em Em
Holdin' onto moments, before they're all gone.

Em Em
While the clock keeps ticking, I'll hold the line.

Em Em
Living every second, while there's still time.

[Chorus x2]

A7* Em
I Rush on... cause my time's almost gone.

A7* Em {stop abruptly at end of 2nd time}
Rush on, rush on... yeah, my time's almost gone.
