

Weight Of Your World by Chris Stapleton (Capo 6th)

[Intro] G D Em C

[Verse 1]

G D Em C
I want you to know, w-h-e-r-e-v-e-r your road wants to go.

G D Em C
I'll never be far, I'll always be right where you are.

Am G
If you lose your way, if your hope is gone.

C D
I'll be the light... that l-e-a-d-s you home.

[Chorus]

G D
Give me your darkest hour... Give me your deepest fear.

Em C
Just give me a call... and I'll be here.

G D
Give me the bars and chains, that won't set you free.

Em C G D Em C
Give me the weight of your world... and lay it on me.

[Verse 2]

G D Em C
There will come a time, when all the words don't seem to rhyme.

G D Em C
Please l-e-a-n on me... until you find the har-mo-ny.

Am G
When it's hard to breathe, when the right seems wrong.

C D
I'll be the hand... that h-e-l-p-s you along.

[Chorus]

Give me your darkest hour... Give me your deepest fear.

Just give me a call... and I'll be here.

Give me the bars and chains, that won't set you free.

Give me the weight of your world... and lay it on me.

[Bridge]

Wherever you go, wherever you've been.

Anytime... you n-e-e-d a friend.

[Chorus]

Give me your darkest hour... Give me your deepest fear.

Just give me a call... and I'll be here.

Give me the bars and chains, that won't set you free.

Give me the weight of your world... and lay it on me...

[Outro]

Just, lay it on me... Oh, lay it on me...

Give me the weight of your world... and lay it on meeeeeeeeeeee
