

“Again” by Aaron Lewis (Capo 4th)

[Intro] G-----D-----Em-----C-----

[Verse]

G D
I try when I look back, but I still just feel numb,

Em C
And I see in my shadow, the man I've become.

G D
All the times that I've gone down, the wrong roads in life.

Em C
The wrong turns I've taken, the only ones I get right.

Am G
I ain't one for foldin', the hand I've been dealt.

C C
All the games I've been playin', well, I forgot how it felt.

[Chorus 1]

G D
To have the wind in my back, and the sun on my face.
{With the}

Em C
The storm clouds behind me, and I'm still in the race.

G D
I got my windows rolled down, and the rain pourin' in.

Em C
Forgot what it's like, to feel good in my skin.

Am C G---D---Em---C-----
'Cause I'd give everything, to feel anything... again. {Mm-mm}

[Verse]

G D

All the years chasin' sad songs, it sure takes a toll.

Em C

On the ones you leave waitin', when are you comin' home?

G D

I'm faded and jaded... and frayed at both ends.

Em C

And just lookin' to get high, with some help from my friends.

[←Back to Chorus 1] {Sing words in blue.}

[Outro Chorus]

G D

With the wind in my back and the sun on my face.

Em C

The good Lord above me, tryin' to show me the way.

G D

I got my windows rolled down, and the sun's pourin' in.

Em C

Forgot what it's like, to feel good in my skin.

Am C

'Cause I'd give everything, to feel anything.

Am C G---D---Em---C----

I'd give everything, to f-e-e-l anything... again.

[Outro]

G-----D-----Em-----C-----G {fade}

Well, I'd give everything... To feel anything...
