F-e-e-l-s like only yesterday...

I was young, wild and twenty-one.

Blink and it's gone... that's how it goes,

One day you're young, the next you're old.

G

Moments slippin' through your hands.

D

Turning into stories you never planned.

Em

Life moves fast, it never slows,

G---C---G-----

And nobody tells you 'til you know... Hmm mmm

Friends I swore I'd n-e-v-e-r lose.

C

Dreams I thought I'd always choose.

Funny how the years go by...

G---C---G-----

'Til you can't remember why... Oh Noo ^^^ Back to Chorus ^^^

Bridge

I'm learning now to slow my pace,
Hold the ones I love, give life its place.
No more waiting... for "some-day soon,"
I'm living now, while there's still room.

Verse 3

Here's to mornings I used to waste,
and second chances, I learned to chase.
Here's to calling those I miss,
and holding on a little like this.
and If the years keep running ahead,
I'll meet them smilin', not with dread.

Final Chorus

Blink and it's gone... that's how it goes,
One day you're young, the next you're old.
Moments slippin' through your hands.
Turning into stories you never planned.
Life moves fast, it never slows,
And nobody tells you 'til you know... hmmm 'til you know.
Blink... and it's gone.
