

Letter in the Quiet by Mike Adams (Capo 6th)

Intro: G*-----Em*-----C*----- G*-----

Verse 1

There's a quiet in the evenin'... when the day is almost through.
And I still catch myself reachin' sometimes, for the phone to talk to you.
We would sit and talk for hours... like time had lost control.
Your laughter through the phone line... was music to my soul.
No matter where life took me... or how far I would roam.
Hearing you say "Hey Michael"... always felt like home.

Chorus 1

So, here's my letter in the quiet... sent with a simple prayer.
If love can cross the distance... my heart still feels you there.
I hope it finds you smilin'... somewhere peaceful, somewhere new.
I miss your laugh, your steady way... and still lean on you.

Verse 2

You never failed to notice... when the weight was on my chest.
You'd say 'Son, you're strong enough'... and somehow I felt blessed.
You believed in who I'd be... long before I ever knew...
And when doubt comes knockin'... I still hear the truth from you.

Chorus 2

So, here's my letter in the quiet... carried on the evening air.
If heaven leaves a window... let it find you waiting there.
I miss the way you'd cut right through... the worry in my mind.
Your love still lights my road tonight... the steady, faithful kind.

Bridge

Wish I could call up heaven... If there was some way through.
I'd give anything... just to hear... "Hey Michael... how are you?"

Final Chorus

So, here's my letter in the quiet... from a heart that still believes.
That the bond between a mother & son... Don't break... it only breathes.
I still hear you in the silence... in the words you left in me.
And until I see your face again... I'll live the way you taught me to be.

Outro

The phone line may be silent... but love still carries through.
So here's my letter in the quiet... still reaching out to you.
