

Battling Your Own Mind by Mike Adams (Capo 6th)

Intro G---Am7-----C---G----- x2

Verse 1

The alarm goes off, I drag myself up... ..sunshine through the door.
Coffee's hot, the world looks fine but I'm already losing the war.

Chorus

Battling your own mind, the fight nobody sees.
Smiling at the world outside, while you're dropping to your knees.
The noise is deafening... ..when everything looks fine.
Lord, there ain't a harder thing... than battling your own mind.

Break [G]---Am7-----C---G-----

Verse 2

Uninvited thoughts, pull up a chair, they never say goodbye.
I tell myself it's gonna pass on through, but I can't tell you why.

Chorus

Battling your own mind, the fight nobody sees.
Smiling at the world outside, while you're dropping to your knees.
The noise is deafening... ..when everything looks fine.
Lord, there ain't a harder thing... than battling your own mind.
