

Let Your Life Flow by Mike Adams (Capo 5th)

INTRO G Em D C

VERSE 1

I've been holding on too tight... To things I can't control.

Every answer that I need... Is buried in my soul.

The weight I carry on my back... Gets heavier each day.

But maybe if I let it go... I'll finally find my way.

CHORUS

Let your life flow like a river... Let it bend, let it break.

You don't have to have the answers... You just need a little faith.

Let your life flow, don't resist it... Feel the current pull you through.

When you stop trying to fix it... That's when peace... finds you.

VERSE 2

I've been running from the silence... Scared of what I'd hear.

But the noise just keeps me distant... From the truth that's crystal clear.

All the plans I tried to make... Keep falling through my hands.

But the moment I surrender... Is when I understand.

CHORUS

Let your life flow like a river... Let it bend, let it break.
You don't have to have the answers... You just need a little faith.
Let your life flow, don't resist it... Feel the current pull you through.
When you stop trying to fix it... That's when peace... finds you.

BRIDGE

And maybe I've been wrong... Thinking I'm in control.
Maybe strength is knowing when... To finally let go.
There's a freedom in the falling... There's a light beyond the pain.
And the tide keeps moving forward... Just like healing from the rain.

CHORUS

Let your life flow like a river... Let it bend, let it break.
You don't have to have the answers... You just need a little faith.
Let your life flow, don't resist it... Feel the current pull you through.
When you stop trying to fix it... That's when peace... finds you.

OUTRO

Y--e--a--h... That's when peace finds you.
Let your life flow... Just let it flow... Let it flow...
