

It's Not Worth the Scar by Mike Adams (Capo 4th)

Intro G Am C G x2

Verse 1

G Am C G
Words on the tip of my tongue... heavy as lead.
G Am C G
I watch, the fuse you just sprung... leave it unsaid.
G Am C G
You're drawing a line in the dust... ready to strike.
G Am C G
I'm choosing your peace and our trust, over... being right.

Chorus

G Am
So, I swallow it down... let the wave pass.
C G
Better to bend... than shatter like glass.
G Am
What good is winning the night, if we lose who we are?
C* G
I'm staying quiet... it's not worth the scar.

Break [G] Am C G G Am C G
No... it's not worth the scar.

Verse 2

G Am C G
A slow accumulation of stones... deep in my chest.
G Am C G
A graveyard of "never minds" grown... letting it rest.
G Am C G
Each silence is building a wall... where a bridge used to be.
G Am C G
I'm saving the us of it all but... losing me.

Chorus

So, I swallow it down... let the wave pass.
Better to bend... than shatter like glass.
What good is winning the night, if we lose who we are?
I'm staying quiet... it's not worth the scar.

Break [G] Am C G G Am C G
No... it's not worth the scar.

Bridge

Is it love if I choke on the truth?
Is it grace if I'm hiding the bruise?
I'm keeping the spark... but, fading to dark.

Final Chorus

So, I swallow it down... let the wave pass.
Better to bend... than shatter like glass.
What good is winning the night, if we lose who we are?
I'm staying quiet... it's not worth the scar.

Outro

So I let it go... ...let the silence grow.
Nothing said at all... ...another brick in the wall.
