The Juice Ain't Worth the Squeeze by Mike Adams (Capo 2nd)

[Intro] C----------Am----------F----------C----------

[Verse 1]

C Am
Been working too hard, for too little pay...
F C
Chasing dead ends, day after day.
C Am
Sometimes you just gotta let things be.
F G
Not everything's worth the misery.

[Chorus]

C
If the juice ain't worth the squeeze,
Am
Sometimes you gotta let it be.
F G
If it costs your soul... just to get your piece,
C
Walk away, find your ease.
Am
Yeah, life gets sweeter when you learn to see,
F G C
When the juice ain't worth the squeeze.

[Break] C----------Am----------F----------C----------

[Verse 2]
C Am
Held on too long to a losing hand...
F C
Tried to fix what I couldn't mend.
C Am
Now I know what it means to be free,
F G
Not every fight's, worth fighting, believe me.

[Chorus]
C
If the juice ain't worth the squeeze,
Am
Sometimes you gotta let it be.
F G
If it costs your soul... just to get your piece,
Walk away, find your ease.
Am
Yeah, life gets sweeter when you learn to see,
F G C
When the juice ain't worth the squeeze.

[Break] C----------Am----------F----------C----------

[Outro]
Sometimes letting go... is the key,
Am
To finding peace and setting free.
F
Life's too short for endless grief,
G C--------Am--------F--------C {let fade}
If the juice ain't worth the squeeze.
